WE SHALL REMEMBER

And in different vocations
Where the pressure is unending
And the hours are long and tiring,
We shall remember
The beauty of our years
With memories so dear
That we can never forget;
Memories of laughter
Imprinted in our minds forever.

We shall remember
Traveling our four year journey together,
The familiar faces with soaring smiles
Drifting by in all directions —
And the loud chanting of familiar voices
Calling out, tender and caring
Admist the crowds of eager youth.

And in the long days when time creeps upon us
And no rest is in store
And our spirits collapse in a weary stupor
We shall remember
The splendour of our years,
The brightness of our days.

And how we once were young
Embraced in a cloud of passionate youth,
Swiftly, unrelenting with immeasurable power,
Then vanished suddenly into maturity
And all the earth became new and different once more.

We shall remember
The warmth of all our friendships,
The excited frenzy of living alone
And the inspiring classes full of challenge and insights
With a lesson to be learned engaging
All minds in a fog of puzzled confusion
And riddled curiosity.

And in strange cities
Among unaccustomed people
Who move palefaced with tired staring eyes
We shall remember
The warmth and gaiety of our friends
The polygot color and variety of their faces,
The happy fusion of a homogeneous community
In the common love that unites and binds us together.

And we shall yearn for the sight
Of faces once so dear,
Friends with sparkling eyes
With ready tongue
And laughter loud and unending.

DEDICATION

The Class of 1981 is proud to dedicate the Manor to Rev. George H. McCarron for his thirteen years of services at Fairfield University. We appreciate his many hours spent registering students, his patience while handling add-drop courses and his workmanship in constructing Fairfield's built-in class card file.

Fr. McCarron, undergraduate registrar for 13½ years, sits in front of his 1000 pigeon holes that hold class cards for all courses.

The Rev. George H. McCarron, a native of Newton, Massachusetts and one of eight children, attended Boston College and graduated in 1933. He then entered the Jesuit Society and was ordained in 1944. Prior to becoming Registrar at Fairfield, Fr. McCarron taught high school history in Massachusetts and Maine, and he spent one year at the Prep. He was also on the faculty at Holy Cross College and Weston College. From 1951 to 1954, he served as an administrator in the Jesuit Community here at Fairfield, then he became manager of the Jesuit summer retreat house in Sunapee, New Hampshire. He stayed there fourteen years until he was assigned to his present post, as Fairfield's undergraduate Registrar.

When Fr. McCarron arrived at Fairfield in 1968, registration was a tedious process done, on a first come — first served basis, entirely by hand. In the early 70's, a computer was installed, making it possible to complete registration in a fraction of the time. The Registrar's office in turn, has been able to cope with the University's growing enrollment.

Fr. McCarron has retired this past March and is looking forward to much rest and relaxation. He plans to enjoy his hobby of wood working and would like to visit every so often to make sure things are running smoothly. Fr. McCarron will be greatly missed by both the students and the administration staff.

The Class of 1981 wishes Fr. McCarron the best of luck in the future and a long and restful retirement.

"And so, it is with a great deal of regret, and a somewhat heavy heart, that I announce my decision to leave Fairfield at the end of this season."

Fred Barakat, 2/11/81

Fred Barakat's 11-year reign as the head basketball coach at Fairfield University has been a solid eleven years of growth and success. Keeping Fairfield, a small Jesuit school of just under 3,000 students, among the Eastern elite as far as Division I basketball is concerned has been no easy task. Yet, Barakat and the Stags have endured, and quite well at that.

Since taking over in 1970, Barakat has guided the Fairfield fortunes up the ladder in the East. The growth in stature of the basketball program, within the strict academic framework of the University, has been matched by the subsequent growth in Barakat's personal reputation. He is considered, by his peers, to be among the finest motivators, strategists and recruiters in the game. As a speaker, whether at a basketball clinic, a civic luncheon or booster club affair, Barakat is always an exciting and inspiring performer.

Barakat came to Fairfield in 1970 as a rookie head coach and at a time when the basketball program was struggling. He came after three years as an assistant at Assumption, his Alma Mater, and one year as the assistant at UConn. Three short seasons later, the Stags were upsetting Marshall before a packed house at Madison Square Garden in the opening round of the NIT. That year, the 1972-73 season, the Stags went 18-9, lost by one point to Virginia Tech in the NIT quarter finals and moved into a spot alongside the best in the East.

Since then, Fred Barakat has kept the Stags in that position. Fairfield is now a veteran of three NIT's and has qualified for four ECAC regional playoff spots in the last six years. But the best year of the Barakat regime had to be the 1977-78 season, when Fairfield ripped apart the best in New England en route to a 22-3 regular season tally, which earned them an ECAC playoff and their third trip to the NIT. That team was ranked among the East's top ten and among the nation's top 30 according the The Sporting News and Basketball Weekly. That edition of the Stags also ranked among the top 10 teams in the nation in team offense with a scoring average of 86.5 points a game.

The 1978-79 team finished as the number two team in the nation, behind only UCLA, in team field goal percentage (.540) and third in the nation in team free throw percentage (.770). Highlights from this past season include Barakat chalking up his 100th coaching victory, a 123-103 humbling of 14th-ranked Holy Cross which set a Stag scoring mark and a 26-game home winning streak, which was the longest in the nation.

Fred Barakat is a native of Union City, N.J. and is a 1961 graduate of Assumption College. At Assumption, he sparked a team that became a Division II national power. He captained the Greyhounds as a senior and was named to the Little All-America team. He was also an outstanding catcher on the baseball team. Following his graduation with a B.A. in History, and a brief tryout with the N.Y. Knicks, Barakat returned to New Jersey to coach at Hasbrouck Heights High School. After five seasons at the high school level, he returned to Worcester, Massachusetts and Assumption College to assist his former coach Andy Laska. In 1969, he shifted to UConn to assist Dee Rowe before coming to Fairfield.

Barakat, who was also kept very busy as the assistant athletic director while here at Fairfield, earned his M.A. in personnel and guidance from Montclair State in 1966. He, his wife Florence, and their four children reside in Fairfield.

4-YEAR RETROSPECT

by Sue Roughley and Kathy Moynihan

"The memories of yesterday will last a lifetime." The memories of the past four years, both devastating and inspiring, will remain with the Class of '81 long after we receive our diplomas. Our memories may be stirred by a glance at a yearbook, the mention of a friend's name, or the question of a child about the past. Those memories will bring a sense of sentimentality and nostalgia. Most importantly, they will perhaps bring an awareness of maturing knowledge about love and life which we have acquired here at Fairfield. Remember . . .

women's tennis

The women's tennis team completed the 1980 fall season with a dual match record of 8-3 which included notable victories over Holy Cross College and the University of Hartford. Standouts in the regular season include Linda Tricomi and Anita Hoffner who finished with an 11-1 record in the second doubles position. In addition, members of the team competed in both the Connecticut and the New England Intercollegiate Tournaments. At the state event, Cindy Fischer and captain Mary Ann Hansen proceeded to the finals of the doubles consolation, while Penelope Wolfe was defeated in the semifinals of the singles consolation. The squad will participate in several scrimmages in the spring in preparation for the EAIAW Division III Regional Championships.

men's soccer

The Fairfield University soccer team closed their 1980 season with a record of 4-14, including the first ever victory over the University of Bridgeport. The 3-2 win was the highlight of the season. Playing a difficult schedule, the Stags also picked up wins over Pace, Seton Hall, and NYU. Mark Longwell, a junior, turned in an outstanding year for the Stags. He scored a team-high 10 goals and added four assists to finish the season as the top Fairfield point producer. The Stags played the season in the newly formed Tri-State soccer conference along with Fordham, Manhattan, NYU, St. John's, St. Peter's, Pace, Seton Hall, and Marist, the team that won the league title with an 8-0 record. Longwell was named to the conference All-Star team and picked as the top midfielder in the league. Among the 14 losses were eight games decided by just one goal, including a 2-1 loss to league champion Marist and a 1-0 loss to a very strong Yale team. Coach Jim Kuhlmann's Stars also got some outstanding individual performances from sophomore Tom Donino, junior Al Zappala, junior Carlos Cardosa, and Kevin O'Connell. The Stags lost just three seniors this year and the prospects for 1981 are bright. Coach Kuhlmann will, however miss the services of seniors Phil Kreski, Bob Kennedy, and Bob Nurmi.

women's field hockey

The 1980 field hockey team, under first year coach Marilyn Rowe, completed its season with a 2-3-5 record. While the record does not indicate it, Coach Rowe felt that her team enjoyed a successful season and showed considerable progress over the course of the year. The Stags were led by their trio of captains: Mary Brown, who was a top defensive standout, Carol Tarkowski, whose two goals and two assists along with Eileen Noonan's two assists provided an offensive spark. Leading the way for Fairfield in the scoring column was junior Nancy Whelan who scored three goals and added two assists, junior Barbara Weyant and freshman Lauren Lam, who knocked in two goals apiece. Junior Peggy Kiely and sophomore Maureen McAuliffe each contributed an assist while Kiely had the role of field general and McAuliffe was an adept passer. Paving the way defensively was the excellent goaltending tandem of junior Mary Carrington and sophomore Alice Raia. Between the two, they allowed a combined total of just 12 opposition goals all season. After having gone through what may be considered a transitional year under Coach Rowe, the Lady Stags appear to be quite confident that next season holds plenty of promise.

swim team

The Fairfield University swim team completed another successful season. The year was kicked off with an impressive fourth place in the Boston College Relays where both the mens' and womens' teams competed in co-ed relays against such teams as Boston College, Northeastern University, Brandeis, MIT, UMass, and other top-ranked New England varsity teams. Although the women's record was 3-5, and the men's was 1-2, they do not indicate the many fine performances seen throughout the season. For the men, fine swims were seen from senior Kevin Brown, junior Ted Schimoler, freshmen Rich Cobb, Tim Favia, and Joe Bellwoar. For the women, junior Maura Feeley and freshman Carolyn Sabatini had many top finishes. An exceptional performance was seen from freshman Lorilee Healy who qualified for the Nationals in both the 50-meter and 200-meter backstroke, along with Lynn Angelo and Lori Beam, who both qualified for diving. Being a team almost entirely made up of underclassmen, the swim team is looking foward to an even better season next year.

men's basketball

The 1980-81 season began with a lot of new faces. The Stags lost three seniors from last years' 11-16 team, and guard Rich Broggini was forced to forego his senior season due to chronic bad injury. However, seven new players joined the squad and their potential looks impressive. Among the highlights for the Stags were the in-season tournaments. The season opener was the IPTAY Classic at Clemson, which they lost to Clemson. The Elm City Classic at the New Haven Coliseum and the Bankers' Classic also ended in a loss to the Stags. Although their record was not as good as they had hoped, the future looks promising. Next year the Stags will be playing in the newly-formed Metro Atlantic Conference. Joining Fairfield in this conference will be Army, Iona, Manhattan, St. Peter's, and Fordham. It is hoped that in the future, the Metro Atlantic Conference champion will be awarded an automatic berth to the NCAA Basketball tournament.

women's basketball

After going just 7-16 through the first three months of the season, Coach Dianne Nolan's Lady Stags finished by winning 6 of their last 7 outings. In capping their final five regular season contests, the Fairfield women gained a bid to the State Division II tournament and a number 2 seeding. The Lady Stags lost a 63-58 decision to New Haven, the eventual tourney champs, and then won the consolation title by a 55-48 score over Eastern Connecticut. Donna Margine, Fairfield's outstanding senior captain, led the team in scoring as she finished the year averaging 14.4 ppg. Margine ended her career with a four-year total of 1,558 points, the most ever by a woman at Fairfield. Although she will lose Margine, Coach Nolan has plenty to smile about when looking to the future. Next season she will return with two well-seasoned juniors and four experienced sophomores. In addition, there's a strong crop of freshmen who gained some valuable experience, including Carolyn Hodges who was the second leading scorer and rebounder this year, and 6'1" Liz Carroll who missed 25 games due to leg injuries. Based on this year's strong finish, the Lady Stags can envision the prospects of a winning season in the near future.

men's tennis

The 1981 men's tennis team won its last three matches of the season, to finish with a 6-6 record. Four seniors will be lost to graduation and will be sorely missed: co-captains Jeff McNamara and Greg Magner, Ed Poirot, and Keith Richardson.

There were several highlights during the season. The team made a very good showing at the New England College tennis tournament. Jeff McNamara got to the quarterfinals of the winners division and Keith Richardson and Rich O'Keefe got to the semi-finals of the losers bracket. Jeff McNamara also broke the all-time singles record at Fairfield, with a record of 8-4. Freshman Ray Liss played number one and also did very well, as did Keith Richardson and Brian Murphy.

Although next years team will be relatively young, there are some solid tennis players returning which could form the nucleus of a very successful team.

men's ice hockey

The 1981 Skating Stags enjoyed a very successful season under the tutelhee of Dr. John McCarthy. The 14-9-1 Stags narrowly missed the playoffs as they were ranked ninth out of 26 teams in Division III, according to Hockey Magazine.

The season was highlighted by the dramatic, first-ever Stag victory at the Wesleyan Tournament. The Stags beat Trinity College in the first round and bested host Wesleyan in the final round to win the tournament.

The Stags will lose four members to graduation: Captain John Fitzgerald; co-captain Dicky Crowell; Kevin Leys; and John Kelly. The four contributed significantly to the Stag ice fortunes and will be sorely missed. But with many lettermen returning, the 1981-82 ice hockey season promises to be a good one.

men's baseball

Although Fairfield University's baseball team lost two very important players to graduation last year (Larry Bossidy, a left-handed pitcher with a 5-1 record in 1980 who signed a free-agent contract with the Houston Astros, and four-year star Cedrick Warner, who concluded his career with 138 hits, an all-time high), the 1981 squad managed a 10-19 record.

Again, the 1981 schedule was one of the East's best. St. John's, the Northeast representative in the College World Series, was the road opener, and NCAA Division II national finalist New Haven and defending ECAC New England champion Maine were other foes. Three meetings with perennially strong Connecticut, the second of which took place under the lights at Waterbury's Municipal Stadium, and a southern trip which included a pair of games with the University of North Carolina and three games against East Carolina were other highlights.

Fairfield University baseball has reached a peak of excellence under athletic director and head coach Don Cook. He has orchestrated the Stags rise from a floundering college division team into one of the East's strongest and most respected Division I programs. Three straight appearances in the ECAC New England Tournament, 1977-79, stand as testimony to Fairfield's consistency. And although this was his 16th season as head coach, Coach Cook's unbridled enthusiasm and energy made it seem like his first.

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

FAIRFIELD UNIVERSITY

FAIRFIELD, CONNECTICUT 06430 ■ (203) 255-5411

May 26, 1981

Dear Graduates:

As members of the graduating class of 1981, you now enter the ranks of a very special group of people - our alumni.

It is my hope that you, like so many of the alumni who have graduated before you, will realize in time that your four years at Fairfield University have greatly enriched both your professional and your personal lives. I am confident that the values you have learned here will help to deepen your compassion toward others, to further your spiritual understanding of life and to assist your continuing growth toward maturity.

In addition, I trust that your years at the University have instilled a sense of pride in, and attachment to, Fairfield and that you will be a frequent visitor on campus, an active participant in alumni activities, and an enthusiastic supporter in directing to Fairfield future students who might benefit from our traditions.

May the values that you have learned these past four years remain with you for your lifetime, and may you find success in your new endeavors.

Congratulations and God's blessings.

Sincerely,

Aloysius Kelley, Sj

1981 MANOR

Dear Reader, June 1981

It is with a great deal of anticipation and excitement that we welcome you to the 1981 Manor. Many Saturday afternoons throughout the year were spent in the basement Manor office in Southeast working on the book. We ran into many obstacles along the way, but hope that you will appreciate our efforts. In spite of it all, we proudly present this to you.

As always, there are many individuals who deserve mention and thanks. We hope we have acknowledged all of those who did indeed contribute in any way towards the production of this yearbook. In addition to the staff, many people devoted a great deal of time to this book. We would like to take this opportunity to thank May, Bridget, and Charlie in the mailroom; Jim Fitzpatrick, Moderator of the Manor, and John Kurdziel at Delma Studios. We would especially like to thank Marge Scheidl from Herff Jones Yearbooks, our publisher, for all of her time and energy she has put into the book.

Four years is a long time to spend anywhere; we have been fortunate enough to have spent them here. We hope we have shown you a cross-section and varied display of life here at Fairfield. We hope that you enjoy this edition of the Manor and that the words and pictures included will bring back many happy memories of your life at Fairfield University today and for many years to come.

Mary V. Schreck.

The 1981 Manor of Fairfield University, Fairfield, Connecticut was printed in an edition of 550 copies with 248 pages. The book was set in offset lithography by Herff Jones Yearbooks located in Gettysburg, Pennsylvania.

The entire book was printed on 100# Ainsworth paper stock. There are 18 pages of full process color: eight in the first signature, eight in the eighth signature, and two in the fourteenth signature.

The cover is custom embossed with a metallay application of the school seal. The cover material is Vibra Tex antique plum #41078 with a black overtone rub; the grain is english linen. It is mounted on 160 point binder's board.

The endsheets are full process color, different front and back.

The book is smyth sewn in sixteen page signatures, trimmed to 9" x 12", and rounded and backed.

All captions and body copy are done in 10 and 12 point Times Roman throughout using italics as an emphasis face. Headlines appear in the same style in 18, 30, and 36 point.

WE SHALL REMEMBER . . .
